

EUROLEAGUE UNDERWATER RUGBY

Official invitation for participate at the season 2016/17

European Underwater Rugby League

At the season 2015/16 Euroleague were held in three rounds at Hameenlinna (Finland), Molde (Norway) and Copenhagen (Denmark). Euroleague had 6 game days from October till April, 9 teams, 36 games and 200 players from 12 countries.

Creating the European Underwater Rugby League was a breakthrough in the development of underwater rugby. The Euroleague has become the media product, which combines great teams with a rich history, approved and time-tested rules, effective system of refereeing, a complex system of underwater videoing. At the new level Euroleague should become the first professional tournament in underwater rugby and compete with other popular sports.

The winning team gets the grand prize of the European Underwater Rugby League: The Semenov Cup. The Cup played since 2010. In the first season Cup winner was the home team of Nikita Semenov - Betta Moscow. Since 2012 The Semenov Cup is the main prize of Euroleague.
